

Winner of Bout Tonight Will Have Chance to Face Jack Johnson for World Title

SAM LANGFORD WILL TRY FOR SLEEPER AGAINST JEANETTE

Huge Crowd Expected at Garden Tonight When Black Men Meet.

DETAILS OF POLICE TO STOP DISORDER

Winner Will Seek Chance to Face Jack Johnson for Championship of the World.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—All New York is waiting for the bell to ring that sends Joe Jeanette hurtling against Sam Langford in Madison Square Garden tonight, and the outlook is for an attendance to equal that which gathered for the Wells-Brown bout a week ago. There is bad blood between the two boxers, and Langford will, undoubtedly, endeavor to put Jeanette away with least dispatch. Jeanette believes that victory will entitle him to a chance against Jack Johnson, and he is primed for the battle.

In another way this bout is attracting unusual attention. If there are scenes of disorder at the garden tonight, it may mean the end of public boxing in this city. Yesterday word was sent to both boxers that if any stalling is noticed, Referee Charlie White will immediately stop the fight, and neither boxer will receive any money for his services. Such a notice is considered foolish on the part of the management, but it is indicative of the mental condition of the promoters here.

Large details of police will be on duty inside and outside of the huge building, and no disorder will be allowed for an instant. The police have received orders to quell all disturbances before they get under way. Langford and Jeanette have finished their training. For weeks they have worked like Trojans for the battle, and it's the word of experts that no point of physical condition could be reached than they are now in. Each man is sure he will "bring home the bacon." Charlie White says that he looks for a hard battle, basing his prediction on the mental bouts the pair have engaged in before.

When Langford gets into the ring he will appear as he never did before. A New York crowd that has been wont to carry his name has been in the ring does him more respect than Jeanette, and that was the reason he worked so hard to bring himself down from his usual 190 pounds. And he says he is just as fast as he ever was in his life, his punch is still there, and with it he expects to drop Jeanette before the limit.

Jeanette, too, is rigid for the bout and believes he will outpunch, outgame, and, in fact, outdo Langford in everything this evening and carry off the prize, as well as the right to meet Jack Johnson first.

A comparison of the records of Langford and Jeanette show how equal the men are. While Langford is the popular choice, he has not much the better of it when their fights are compared against men of equal caliber. Langford's best fights—Joe Jeanette, draw, twelve rounds; Sam McVea, draw, twelve rounds; Jack Johnson, draw, fifteen rounds; Sam McVea, draw, fifteen rounds; Sam McVea, draw, twenty rounds; Bill Lang, won, five rounds; Al Jackson, knockout, five rounds; Tony Ross, knockout, six rounds. Jeanette's best fights—Sandy Ferguson, knockout, four rounds; Sam McVea, draw, fifteen rounds; Sam McVea, draw, forty-nine rounds; Sam McVea, knockout, one round; Harry Shering, knockout, two rounds; Cook, knockout, four rounds; Porky Plinn, won, ten rounds.

Schaefer Greeted by Philadelphia Fans

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 5.—The appearance of Germany Schaefer at first base for the Nationals in the afternoon game yesterday was the signal for loud cheering from the Philly fans, who bank on the Dutchman to provide them with a sideshow. He lived up to his reputation, too, and was not on the field five minutes before he had struck up a conversation with some fans in a box. In the preliminary practice Schaefer was a bit tender in reaching for widely thrown balls, and those that forced him to dig into the dirt, but he grabbed a few, and then stood on one foot, just to prove to the folks in the box that he was there. When Chief Bender came out to the coaching box back of first the Nationals' comedian waved him away, saying, "I'll take care of this place, Chief; go on out of the hot sun." This brought the laugh from the fans. Manager McCreary was pleased to have his regular first-stacker in shape to play, and said that Schaefer's presence on the field added 50 per cent to the playing strength of the team.

Over Short Fences to Count Only Two Bags

Barney Dreyfuss has a scheme which ought to be adopted without delay. The Pittsburgh magnate favors the adoption of a rule that all balls hit over short fences or in convenient grandstands should count for no more than a two-bagger. Barney wants the fences and grandstands over 250 feet away from the home plate.

PLAN RECEPTION TO PLUCKY OARSMEN OF POTOMAC BOAT CLUB

Junior Eight Is Victorious in Best Race on River in Middle States Regatta.

The crew of the Potomac Boat Club are back today, bearing one victory and one defeat from the Middle States regatta at Baltimore. They consider their performances good and so do their clubmates, a reception now being planned for them by their club members.

The junior eight rowed to victory in the best race of the day, crossing the line a scant length ahead of the crack Vesper boat from Philadelphia. Throughout the struggle over the mile course, the Potomac, Vesper and Ariel crews raced bow to bow, hardly a yard separating them at any time. So hard was their fight for the honors, that the huge crowd was kept cheering constantly.

Finally, as the three shells came within sight of the finish line, the coxswain of the Potomac boat called for the supreme effort. His men responded and swept ahead of the Vespers a foot, a yard, two yards, and then gained a whole length just as they went over the line. The Arrels, of Baltimore, were third.

In the intermediate eight race, the Potomac crew put up a grand struggle against the crack Ariel crew, but had to bow their heads in honorable defeat. So hard did the Washington oarsmen press the Baltimoreans that several Arrels were nearly in a state of collapse as they rested on their sweeps.

Printers Banqueted On Way Home

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 5.—A large contingent of union printers returning from the printers' national baseball tournament at St. Louis gathered around banquet tables yesterday at the Coney Island clubhouse and exchanged stories of the trip. The wives and families of some met them. Many members of Columbia Typographical Union No. 101, who did not go to St. Louis came here for the occasion. National Commissioner J. M. Dugan was master of ceremonies, and introduced National Commissioner Frank Lerch, who addressed the printers. Mr. Lerch extended an invitation to the Cincinnati printers who had come to Coney Island to stop over in Washington next summer while en route to Boston, where the 1911 tournament will be held.

Among the Washingtonians were William R. Love, president of Columbia (No. 101) Athletic Association; National Commissioner Frank Lerch and wife, C. H. Greenwald and wife, J. T. WINGED FIST FOUR SETS NEW RECORD IN GOTHAM RELAY

Other Figures Shattered, Too, When Stars Compete at Celtic Park.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Three world records were wrecked at the annual fall games of the Irish-American A. C., held before a big crowd of athletic enthusiasts in Celtic Park yesterday. Henry Schaff, Mel Sheppard, Harry Gising and Jim Rosenberger carried the siks of the Irish-American A. C. to victory in the mile relay race, covering the route in the great time of 3:18 1-5, knocking two and two-fifths seconds from the record of 3:20 3-5, made by Cassara Sheppard, Rosenberger and Robbins of the Irish-American A. C. at Travers Island on September 25, 1906.

Louis Scott, the phenomenal young Jerseyman, raced to victory in the 5,000-meter handicap, breasting the tape in 15:22 1-5, fracturing the former figures of 15:35 made by John Ewanberg, running as an amateur in Falun, Sweden, in 1907.

Matt McGrath, the former Mercury Footer, won the 56-pound weight throw, heaving the big ball the remarkable distance of 38 feet 9 1/2 inches, smashing the world record of 38 feet 9 1/2 inches, made by Pat McDonald of the Irish-American A. C. at this season's senior national championships of the A. A. U. in Pittsburgh on July 1.

"Slow Joe" Doyle to Join 1912 Superbas

Charley Ebbets has picked up in the neighborhood of seventy-five embryo pastimers to strengthen the Superbas not only next year, but also for 1913 and 1914. Among some of the "embryo" flingers are "Slow Joe" Doyle, former Hman, and Reggie, and Tommy Atkins, once a White Elephant. "Slow Joe" went to Binghamton after finding the pace too fast in the Eastern League, but he has been pitching phenomenal ball for the New York State League club. Atkins was released by the Athletics to Baltimore, but drifted into the Southern League, as he was an in-and-out with the Orioles.

Ritter Sets Up New Mark in Short Swim

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—A new American outdoor record for the quarter-mile swim was made by R. M. Ritter, of the City Athletic Club in the championship contest held yesterday afternoon at Travers Island, the summer home of the New York Athletic Club. Ritter's time was 5:52 3-5, clipping 1 3-5 seconds from C. M. Daniels' record of 5:54 1-5 for the distance, made over the same course, and 7 1-5 seconds from Daniels' time which won the championship in 1910.

S.S.S. improves the appetite and digestion, corrects stomach disturbance and steadily tones and builds the system up to perfect health. It adds to the blood the rich, healthful properties it needs, and in every way benefits the system. S.S.S. cures all diseases and disorders arising from weak or impure blood. KILBANE PUTS STOP TO ONWARD CAREER OF RIVERS WITH K. O.

Cleveland Boxer Hangs Sleep Wallop on Mexican in Sixteenth Round.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 5.—With a hard right swing to the jaw, Johnny Kilbane, of Cleveland, knocked out Joe Rivers, of Los Angeles, in the sixteenth round of their scheduled twenty-round bout at Vernon yesterday.

With Rivers leading in most every round up to the sixteenth round, Kilbane scored the knockout 30 seconds after the gong had sent them together in that round. A blow on the jaw dazed Rivers but did not knock him down. A terrific right to the pit of the stomach doubled the Mexican in a knot on the floor. Rising groggily he tried to rush into a clinch, but a right swing sent him sprawling to the canvas. It was fully five minutes before Rivers was able to leave the ring.

HARLAN TO COACH TIGER FRESHMEN'S ELEVEN THIS FALL

Former Princeton Halfback Sees Much Hope in Football Team.

Eddie Harlan, formerly Princeton's crack halfback and on-side kicker, chosen by Walter Camp for his All-American eleven, will coach the Tiger freshmen this fall, according to his announcement yesterday after the game he pitched for the Maryland A. C. against the Bankers for the Inter-City championship at American League park.

"I shall have complete charge of the freshmen, and if I have any luck with them," said Harlan, "I shall be glad to play them against Logan Cunningham's varsity eleven."

When at college, Harlan earned the reputation of being one of the greatest running halfbacks in the game, and his kicking in all the championship games was a feature of the contests. As an on-side kicker he was well-nigh peerless, and the young Tigers should have some good kicking backs if Harlan has his way with the candidates.
